IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE Second Judicial District of the State of Nevada, in and for the county of Washoe. The State of Nevada sends to Ardeen Jones greeting:

You are hereby required to appear in an action commenced against you as defendant by Jemima Jones as plaintiff in the District Court of the Second Judicial District, in and for the county of Washoe, State of Nevada, and answer the complaint therein within ten days after the service on you of this Summons (exclusive of the day of service) if served in said county, or twenty days if served out of said county, but within said District, and in all other cases forty days; or judgment by default will be taken against you according to the prayer of said complaint. The said action is brought to obtain a decree dissolving the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between plaintiff and defendant. Plaintiff alleges: That plaintiff and defendant intermarried at Mono county, California, on or about July 9th, A. D. 1874, and ever since have been and now are husband and wife; that on or about Sept. 9th, A.D. 1875, you, the defendant, wilfully deserted and abandoned plaintiff, and ever since have so continued, and now do so continue to desert, abandon and live apart from plaintiff, against her will, wish or consent; that for more than a year next preceeding the commencement of this action you, the defendant, have failed and neglected, and now fail and neglect to provide for plaintiff the common necessaries of life, which neglect is and was not the result of poverty on your part which you could not have avoided by ordinary industry; that there are no children living of the issue of said marriage, and no common property. Plaintiff prays to be restored to her maiden name, and for costs, all of which will more fully appear from the complaint which is on file in the office of the Clerk of said Court, at Reno, in said county. And you are further notified that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint, the said plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded.

In testimony whereof I, P. B. Comstock, have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said Court this sixth day of December, A. D. 1878.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Three legislatures are now struggling with the problem "How not to elect a United States Senator," and up to the present each has been very successful in solving it. The days when Senatorial timber was so scarce that a few ballots usually decided the contest between two or three prominent candidates are past. Our conservative father were very old fashioned, says the Omaha Bee. They thought that the qualifications for a United States Senator ought to be somewhat above those required for a Justice of the Peace. And they generally succeeded in electing men of more than local prominence whose abilities had been tested in public life, and whose character had been for years under general scrutiny. In consequence, ability and prominence had a monopoly of Senatorial nominations and fourth-class lawyers and third rate merchants were wickedly excluded from political competition.

The free advertising given to the sporting fraternity by the newspapers has started quite a pugilistic boom. There is more wind than war in the air, however. Gold rather than gore is what the gentlemen of the ring are after, and as long as exhibitions with the gloves pay handsomely as they do at present the stakes are not likely to be set very soon or the police called upon to separate the fighters.

The Republicans held a preliminary caucus Wednesday and passed a resolution pledging themselves to support the caucus nominee. The Warden will be selected to-day and formally balloted for next Monday.

We are under many obligations to Hon. H. L. Fish for a package of bills introduced, and copies of the report of the Warden of the State Prison and Superintendent of Insane Asylum.

The per diem of the attaches of the California Legislature amounts to just $545 50 for each day of the 60 day session.

Henry G. Langley, for many years publisher of the San Francisco Directory, died a few days since in the latter city.

French broch is now attracting more attention than Irish stew in European political restaurants.

Excitement Over a Prospect in Gravel.

TROY, N. Y., Feb. 1

Prospectors for gold in Hamilton county, situated in the Adirondack region, have penetrated an ancient river bed, which it is said, contains gold and is a rich find. Benson valley has a very large area of gold-bearing ground. It is believed by many to be the basin of an ancient lake. The discovery a few days ago of an ancient river bed at the depth of fifty feet locates gold as a native of that section. Silver and gold-bearing quartz has been found in various sections of Warren as well as in Hamilton county. There are also valuable deposits of mica and galena. It is confidently expected that horn silver will yet be found. One company is in active operation night and day. The company have two shafts close to a mill, and have commenced working gravel from the surface by running an incline drift. Gravel is drawn from this drift on an incline track to the mill in cars opening from the bottom, after which it is passed through a screen under a jet of water to a breaker, thence into a pulverizer, passing through which in half an inch of water it is reduced to a fine mash. The mill works 60 tons per day. About fourteen companies have been incorporated already, and others are forming. The past week has been one of great excitement. Hundreds of people are daily visiting the mill at Benson Centre.

A Quorum Demanded--Cooked Petitions in Congress.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.

The following circular has been sent to each Republican member of the House: "A quorum of Republican members is demanded for Monday, the 5th inst. It has been fully demonstrated that if important business this season is to receive final action 147 Republicans must be in their seats from 11 A. M. until adjournment." Fifty-seven petitions asking the passage of a bill to extend national aid to the common schools was presented in the senate this morning by Blair and Mahone. The uniformity in signatures to the majority of these memorials created some curiosity as to their genuineness as representatives. In many instances all the signatures on a petition to the number of 50 to 100 have found to have been written by the same person with neither cross marks nor memoranda to explain. It is a rather singular fact that in one instance in a petition purporting to come from Aiken, S. C., the names of ministers of the gospel are signed to petitions by the same person; and among the Virginia petitions presented by Mahone the same handwriting in blue graphite is found. In memorials purporting to come from Lynchburg, Salem and Gloucester the petitions are not dated.

Old War Ships Condemned and to be Broken up.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.

The following list of vessels will be stricken from the navy register under provisions of the naval appropriation act of 1882, they being unfit for further service: The Congress, Guard, Kansas, Massachusetts, Sabine, Connecticut, Iowa, Niagara, Oregon, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Virginia, Farraday, New Orleans, Calassas, Java, Susquehanna, Burlington, Supply, Antietam, Dictator, Frolic, Relief, Pawnee, Benicia, Old Monadnock, Narragansett, Niack, Saco, Tuscarora, Worcester, Canandaigua, Shawmut, Savannah, Santee, Wyoming and Roanoke. Most of the vessels mentioned will be broken up, while a few will be sold at auction.

The Kansas Legislature.

TOPEKA, Feb. 1.

A concurrent resolution instructing the Attorney-General to commence quo-warranto proceedings against the Kansas-Pacific and Union Pacific railroads passed in the Senate to-day has passed the House. A resolution asking Congress to establish a national cattle trail through Texas, Indian Territory, Kansas and Nebraska was rejected.

Two Wealthy Texans Have a Little Fun.

FORT WORTH, Feb. 2.

A game of poker in a hotel here led two of the wealthiest men in Texas to draw revolvers for a settlement. Eight random shots were fired, the only person injured being the occupant of an adjoining room, who was shot through the right leg. As the combatants are proud and gamey the Coroner still has hopes of a fee.

White House Flirtations --- The President's Eye for Pretty Women.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.

Washington is just now giving a good deal of attention to the President and Miss Beckwith. Last Summer it was reported that he was engaged to Mrs. Wadsworth. He certainly paid her a great deal of attention and robbed the hot-house of the Executive Mansion of its choicest buds and blossoms in order to furnish bouquets to that charming widow. Mrs. Wadsworth is now in Europe and rumors are busy with the name of Miss Beckwith. She is now at the Arlington Hotel with her mother. She is a New York lady about 26 years of age. She is not only beautiful but has many graces of figure and mind. The President has had several very nice little dinners at the White House in her honor and her table at the Arlington is all the while decorated with the choicest of flowers from the White House conservatory. To-day the President organized a little party for her benefit to make a visit to Mt. Vernon. The Government boat Dispatch was used to convey the party to the tomb of the Father of his Country. An eminent society lady a day or two ago remarked that President Arthur was a great flirt, but it probably only means that he has the good taste to like the society of pretty and accomplished women.

Statistics of Suicides---Facts and Figures For Eleven Years.

NEW YORK, Feb. 2.

Dr. Nagle, Register of Vital Statistics, publishes the results of eleven years' record and observations of suicide in New York. The main causes are traced to abnormal physical or mental conditions, disappointment, intemperance, business reverses and family differences. There is no apparent reason why Germans, who as a class are wealthier and more prosperous than the Irish, should so largely exceed the latter in suicide, unless it be the national temperament. The Irish show a less number of suicides in proportion to their population than any other foreign-born inhabitants. The number of males who committed suicide during the past 11 years was 1,193, while the number of females was 328. In 1864 the proportion of suicides here was one to every 23,827 inhabitants. In 1874 it was one to every 5,515.

Congressional Intelligence.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.

In the House, McCook (N. Y.) presented a memorial from the Chamber of Commerce of New York urging Congress to pass a bill limiting the coinage of silver dollars to the requirements of the people.

Petitions were presented protesting against the transfer of the revenue marine life saving and coast survey services to the Navy Department.

After the appointment of conferees on the Postoffice Appropriation bill, the House went committee of the whole on the tariff, the pending amendment being that offered by Carter (Penn.) to increase the duty on tanning barks from 10 to 20 per cent. ad valorem.

In the Senate Hoar presented a petition from President Elliott and other professors of Harvard asking that no one but professional astronomers of experience shall be hereafter eligible for the position of Superintendent of the United States Naval Observatory.

The Tooth-Puller's Victim, or the Deluded Widow.

NEW YORK, Feb. 2.

Dr. W. M. Renyolds, dentist, of 71 west 55th street, was arrested on Wednesday night on affidavits of O. H. Vail and others charged with obtaining over $20,000 from a widow, through Vail as agent, by means of false representations. Vail stated to a reporter that Reynolds had induced him as agent to invest the lady's money in the stock of the Cisco Consolidated Mining Company of which Reynolds was until recently director several different times in the last three years, by falsely representing its value. To support his statement Vail laid before Judge Donahue, by whom the order of arrest was issued, affidavits by Drake DeKay and others denying the truth of some of Reynold's statements. Vail took 9,000 shares at $25 each, giving part cash and his note for the remainder. The arrest is on a civil proceeding to compel restoration of the money.

A Flush Opera Season.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 1.

Never since Music Hall was built has it had such a dense crowd as to-night. Nilsson appeared early in a private box and was greeted with shouts by the audience. The opera of "Simiramide" was presented, with Patti and Selhi in the leading parts. Reserved sold to-night as high as $30. Each Nilsson audience at Robinson's Opera House filled the house to its utmost capacity. The estimated receipts of the two performances are $25,000.

A Scriptural Drop Curtain for the Passion Play.

NEW YORK, Feb. 2.

Harlay Merry in Flatbush is putting the finishing touches on a drop curtain for the "Passion Play." The curtain is 20 feet in height and forty-eight in width. The upper part represents a mass of crimson drapery, gold fringed and looped in the center so as to expose upon inner blue hangings a tripple lily, emblematic of the prophecy that Judah shall bloom like the lily. Over the lily in Hebrew characters are the words, "Jerusalem holy."

Speculations on National Finances --The Last Call for Bonds.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.

Secretary Folger said to-night his action in issuing a call for $15,000,000 extended fives was not in any way influenced by speculations as to the course which Congress would pursue with reference to reducing taxes. He believed the surplus revenues which would acrue before any law making a reduction could go into effect would undoubtedly provide for the redemption of those bonds, and under such circumstances it was his plain duty to issue the call without regard to the attitude of Congress present or prospective. Of course, if he had thought it probable the bonds could not be redeemed without reducing the treasury reserve, he would not issue the call; but such is not his opinion. Even admitting for a moment that Congress might greatly reduce taxes and import duties at the present session, it did not, he thought, follow as an inevitable consequence that the reduction of revenue would be correspondingly great. Lower customs duties and internal revenue taxes would stimulate importation and consumption, so that the first effort of such legislation might be to increase the revenues instead of diminish them.

A Deputy Marshal Encounters a Hard Lot of Citizens.

DALLAS, Feb. 2.

A serious mob affair is reported from Sunset, Montague county. A son of U S. Marshall McKee was sent as a deputy to Sunset to serve attachment papers on the Younger brothers, merchants at Sunset. The Youngers collected a large crowd of their friends and served notice on Deputy McKee to leave town, and took his papers and destroyed them. Unable to perform his duty McKee started for Fort Worth and telegraphed the state of affairs to his father at Dallas. The latter left for Sunset with a posse to enforce serving writs and arrest of members of the mob. Serious trouble is apprehended, as there is a hard lot of citizens around Sunset. It is alleged that upwards of a score of men have been lynched in that vicinity in the past three years. Much apprehension is felt by the authorities here.

He was refused legal advice or communication with the American Consul. The vessel is detained under suspicion of smuggling, with no present prospect of release. JOTTINGS.

Minor Occurrences in and About Town.

There is considerable snow on the Summit, but it is no impediment to travel as yet.

The Indian weather sharps were not far off when they predicted that February would come in with a storm.

The storm is not over yet. Before the weather settles again we will probably get a good dose of the beautiful.

Davis & Son take the cake when fine cigars are in question. Their store on Commercial Row is a popular resort for smokers.

Valentines at Nasby.s. Thermometer to-day at 7, 9, 11, 1 and 3—8, 13, 20, 14, 16. Yesterday at 7, 9, 11, 1 and 3—27, 28, 35, 33, 28.

Ruhe of the Reno Market ships a large number of dressed sheep eastward every week. Yesterday a band of his cattle stampeded, and all have not yet been found.

By February 22 C. J. Brookins' store will look very different from now. He has valentines of all kinds, from the cheap comic to the richest works, tucked away in every conceivable place. Call in and examine his stock and send a pretty valentine to your girl. See 50-cent column.

Nasby, never behind the times, has received a splendid assortment of valentines. He has some cards of the finest work and very appropriate and beautiful to send friends. If you want to have a little fun, examine his stock of comics. Nasby has just put prices down, and 50 cents will buy a bushel. Read 50-cent column.

PERSONALS.

Wm. B. Todhunter, the cattle magnate, is at the Palace.

A. H. Ferguson of Susanville is registered at the Arcade.

George T. Huscroft came in from Honey Lake with 200 head of cattle.

Antone Dragovich has gone to Pyramid to look after the Roma-Union mine.

W. H. A. Pike of Stillwater, Assemblyman from Churchill county, is at the Arcade.

Tule Frank slid off to his ranch this morning. The theatrical business didn't suit him.

Judge M. S. Bonnifield returned from Carson last night and went to Winnemucca this morning.

Dan Pine is now jailor at the municipal stronghold. He will try hard to keep possession of his breeches.

SLAUGHTERING DEER.

An Outrage That Should be Stopped at Once.

The Times-Review, commenting on an article recently printed in the GAZETTE about wanton slaughter of deer by Indians merely for hides, says: "In the matter of game and fish we are unable to see why the Indian should not be subjected to the same rules as a white man. The fish and game laws were made for the sole purpose of protecting and increasing those very important food products. The very same redskins who have slaughtered the 3,000 deer, as dirty pot-hunters would do, in all probability will before Spring be begging around hotel kitchens for cold scraps of grub. To throw three hundred thousand pounds of venison away is an outrage which should not be permitted, and we could not blame the people of Calaveras county if they should adopt the rule of Indian for deer, and shoot the last one of them who were engaged in such wanton destruction of food. We must confess that we were never an admirer of Cooper's Leather Stocking Tales, and are fast approaching the point where we shall advocate the right of the State to legislate for the Indian as well as the white man. In this matter California should unite and enact similar laws."

The Savings Bank Case.

The case of L. L. Crockett, James H. Kinkead and L. C. Batchelder came up again at 10 o'clock to-day in the District Court. There were three grounds of demurrer to the indictment, one of which Judge Boardman sustained, the other two he did not pass upon, and re-submitted the case to the next Grand Jury. The ruling of the Court sets the indictment aside. The bond obligates defendants to answer before the next Grand Jury.

Something in a Name.

Train and stage robbers will hereafter be apt to think twice before they attempt to rob an express car inhabited by Ross, the messenger who stood off so effectively the bandits at Montello lately. Perhaps it would be a good idea, says the Sacramento Bee, to have the names of all the express messengers changed to Ross. There is a great deal in a name sometimes.

Entertainment.

The children's Band of Hope will give an entertainment at the Methodist Church on Saturday evening, February 3rd. Exercises commence at 7 o'clock. No admission fee. All are respectfully invited to attend.

DOWN IN MEXICO.

Letter From a Well-Known Nevadan Who is Traveling in a Slow Country.

FRONTARA TOBASCO, Mexico, December 19, 1882.

EDITOR GAZETTE:—I am far away and waiting for passage in a fearfully lazy country, and for fear I will fall into the indolent habits of these people of this tropical climate, I will try while I remain down here to send a line to you or others on the Pacific Coast. This is a town of 2,000 population, and the streets are straight and beautifully green with grass, except the narrow and crooked trails in which these bare-footed, unenterprising people walk. It is on the San Juan river, which is 12½ miles wide here, six miles from its mouth at the Gulf of Mexico; and a beautiful river it is, (if it did not have so many crocodiles in it) and navigable for 75 miles into the interior, or to San Juan Bautista, the capital city of the State of Tobasco. There are only two or three drays or hand carts here, as all articles are carried upon

THE BACKS OF THE PEOPLE.

There is not even a truck for unloading the freight of ships, and no wharf, but a ship can lay almost against the banks of the river. I see soap, flour, cotton goods, potatoes, liquors, onions and paper unloading from the ship I came on, and I see nothing but logwood and mahogany being exported. This is my sixth day from Vera Cruz (210 miles away) on the road to San Juan Bautista, my objective point, which will give you an idea of the rapid way in which we travel on board a steamship on the Gulf of Mexico, and that is about a sample of the velocity of everything here. We left Vera Cruz on the 13th instant, but instead of coming directly in here we went past 75 miles to Laguna, and arrived there at daylight on the 15th, unloaded a little freight, and remained there all day (to rest our engine I suppose), and started back here at 10:30 P. M., and at 2 A. M. we met a north wind, or gale, turned back, missed the entrance to the port of Laguna—which is six miles wide—in broad daylight, because of a rain-cloud coming along at the time we should have entered, and then we ran out to sea and

ROLLED AND TOSSED

Until the insides—or all that would tear out of us 14 passengers—were on the deck or in the berths with us, while the dishes, tumblers and movable furniture were all smashed. I never saw such a day and night, nor do I ever want to see or experience another like it. They have what is known down here as "Northers," or terrible wind storms from the north, all Winter, and vessels keep far from shoal water, or in the miserably poor harbors on the Gulf, or they get wrecked. Other ports quarantine against this port on account of cholera, but I am told that none exists here at present. Eighteen strong white seamen died during the last six weeks at Laguna of yellow fever, and one died in Vera Cruz while I was there. I am told that there is scarcely a month or a week in the year that some American or European does not die along here from yellow fever. I have maintained for several years that all febrile diseases are diseases of filth, and am perfectly sure of it now. I only wonder that more foreigners do not die down here, as excess in eating and drinking is the rule. Everything is cooked in

FILTHY COTTON SEED OIL,

And meat is the staple food; wine at every meal, and coffee upon rising and going to bed. I am experimenting to see how much I can stand and keep my good health. I drank one glass of champagne cider last evening, and a cup of chocolate this morning, and have just sworn off. Oranges and plain food for me now, or I turn my toes up to the millions of insects that abound in this hot climate ere the Summer arrives. Thirty-five pounds of good flesh have been sacrificed already for the sake of health. The language is difficult, but I must learn it. Women are thick around the gambling tables here, but the money pile is small. The thermometer marks 84 deg. of heat to-day; 96 deg. is hot in Summer, they say.

THE CHILDREN

Are only half dressed or entirely naked here, and not one quarter of them wear shoes. The houses are either thatched or covered with French tiles; no windows or floors for the poor. I see coffee being sold here for 25 cents per poound that would not be worth three cents per pound in the United States. All good coffee is shipped, or sold, and that they cannot sell is consumed at home. Oranges, bananas, and other tropical fruit are plentiful. The coffee is grown higher up the river. I am in company with some Americans and wealthy Spanish and they eat and drink all the time to excess, while I am half sick to-day from a debauch of one glass of champagne last night and one cup of chocolate this morning. Physicians only get one dollar a visit here. It is no place for anyone except traders in the produce of the country. Yours,

MAURICE PRITCHARD.

The Married Ladies to the Front.

The married ladies of Reno intend giving a dance next Monday evening. They have engaged Hall & Meeder's band and are making extensive arrangements for a good time.

EARLY MARRIAGES.

Jumping Too Quickly at the Connubial Bait.

Nine-tenths of the unhappy marriages are the result of green human calves being allowed to run at large in the society pastures without any yokes on them. They marry and have children before they do moustaches; they are fathers of twins before they are proprietors of two pairs of pants, and the little girls they marry are old women before they are 20 years old. Occasionally one of these gosling marriages turns out all right, but it is a clear case of luck. If there was a law against young galoots sparking and marrying before they have all cut their teeth, we suppose the little cusses would evade it in some manner, but there ought to be a sentiment against it. It is time enough for these bantams to think of finding a pullet when they have raised money enough to buy a bundle of laths to build a hen-house. But they see a girl who looks cunning, and they begin to get in their work real spry; and before they are aware of the sanctity of the marriage relation they are hitched for life, and before they own a cook-stove or a bedstead they have to get up in the night and go after the doctor, so frightened that they run themselves out of breath and abuse the doctor because he doesn't run too, and when the doctor gets there there is not enough linen in the house to wrap up a doll-baby.

ABUSING HORSES.

Leaving them to Shiver and Starve in the Cold.

There are men from the adjacent country who are in the habit of coming to town and hitching their teams to the first post they see. Then they go off and get drunk, leaving their poor animals to shiver in the wind, without food or water for many hours on a stretch. Yesterday a pair of horses stood in the storm from 9 in the morning till 10 at night, when officer Mershon took them to a stable. The man who will so abuse animals ought to be punished, for it is a crime which none but a brute would commit. It costs only two bits to put a horse under shelter and give him a bait of hay, and the man who begrudges this to an animal is a poor trinket. Hereafter the officers will take cognizance of this matter.

TOO MUCH GAME.

A Legislative Prevaricator From Lincoln County.

One of the Lincoln county members of the Legislature opposes the game law, because the ducks in his county, he says, are so numerous that they catch them by quantities of 100 and over in traps at a single catch, and cottontail rabbits are caught by the thousands, by driving them into a corral. The farmers go out and surround a section of territory and close in upon them by forming a circle, and by this means succeed in getting a corral full by a single effort. In fact, he claims that ducks, rabbits and other game are so plentiful that it has become a nuisance, and he protests, in the interests of his constituents, against any restrictions being put on the catching of game.

TEXAS CATTLE.

Lone Star Beef by the Southern Pacific.

It is said that Nevada meat merchants are meeting with opposition from an unexpected quarter. For some years the San Francisco meat market has been monopolized by Pacific coast stockmen, but now the Southern Pacific railroad is taking cattle to San Francisco, which creates a sort of diversion in the trade. Beeves are being brought all the way from Texas, and if a corner in the staple meat is being attempted by San Francisco dealers the fact will soon be made known. Texas cattle cannot compare with Nevada cattle, but if they are shipped into California in noticeable numbers they will naturally loosen the market and give poor people a chance to eat beef once in a while.

Silenced by Mercury.

During the recent Northern-Siberia weather which must have been blown down from the Pole, a Reno lady, on a visit to friends and relatives in Ohio, was praising Nevada's mild climate, complaining of the cold weather in Ohio. She was pleased to state that she had never experienced anything like it in the Silver State. One of the lady's Ohio friends was reading the western press dispatches in the daily paper when his eye fell on an Elko weather report: "Thermometer 54 degrees below zero. From six to 60 degrees below zero all over the State." The lady from Nevada's mild climate had nothing more to say.

The Gay Life of a Brakeman.

Train men have lots of fun in stormy weather. It is a prolonged picnic for them. To see the poor devils shivering on top of a cattle-car is enough to draw tears from a monkey-wrench. And yet half the boys in town aspire to be brakeman. They think the man who stands on top of a freight train and wags his hands at the engineer is the biggest kind of a boss, and to get run over and chawed up is glorious martyrdom.

NATURE'S LABORATORY.

A Spring that Spouts Fire and Hot Water

Mr. Wilson, a well-known citizen of Mono county, and who was ranching here ever since the Dogtown placers were discovered, says the Bodie Free Press, is now residing down near Mono Lake. He says that during violent electric storms the volcanoes and springs on the largest island in the lake spout fire and hot water. Not three weeks ago he witnessed the performance and describes it as grand. Sparks were thrown into the air for a distance of twenty feet. In the early days—1856 and thereabouts—the island was constantly agitated. Sometimes a huge column of water would run up and the steam would be so dense as to hide the cliffs and rocks of the island. Wilson is of the opinion that "fledge matter" is forming down deep in the ground.

Rough on Bachelors.

The show window of Jamison & Co. is very attractive to young men—and bald-headed old ones, too—who have never had any ligitimate means of familiarizing themselves with female underwear. The display is calculated to suggest a peculiar train of thought. If there is anything that will set an old bachelor to thinking it is a well-filled corset.

LIEBIG MALT EXTRACT.

RECOMMENDED BY PHYSICIANS of the highest eminence on both sides of the Atlantic, as an invaluable Tonic and Restorative in cases of General Debility, Nervous Depression, Enfeebled Constitution and Female Weakness.

NURSING MOTHERS, who suffer from poverty of milk, will find it a specific for their troubles. It stimulates the digestion, sharpens the appetite, invigorates and builds up the entire system, and excites a generous flow of milk.

WEAK AND SICKLY CHILDREN, who suffer from lassitude and weariness, the result of disease, over-study, or nervous strain, will derive substantial benefit from its use. It restores the system to its normal condition and brings back the bloom of youth.

INVALIDS AND CONVALESCENTS will find it admirably adapted for sustaining life, and restoring lost strength. When the stomach is weak and refuses other nourishment the Extract will prove an excellent substitute for food. It neither palls upon the appetite nor offends the taste.

DELICATE FEMALES, who suffer from the weaknesses of their sex, will derive lasting relief from its use. It improves the digestion, purifies the blood, stimulates the appetite, and revives the spirits.

WEAK AND DELICATE PERSONS GENERALLY, who require some artificial restorative—and especially those who are inclined to Consumption—will find this preparation exactly suited to their needs. It is a specific for the Coughs and Nervous Affections usually incident to a low state of the system.

AS A FLESH RESTORER it possesses the highest value. The whole tendency of its action is to stimulate the digestion of fat-producing foods, and its effect is invariably to give fullness and roundness to the female form, and robustness to the masculine frame.

THE LIEBIG MALT EXTRACT is a pure concentrated Fluid Extract of Malt, agreeable to the taste, and free from alcohol. It is readily retained on the stomach and contains none but wholesome and nourishing ingredients. The genuine preparation bears on the label a fine engraved likeness of BARON VON LIEBIG, and a FAC-SIMILE of his Signature, as well as that of A. VOGELER & CO., BALTIMORE, Md., Sole Agents for America.
